LAW ENFORCEMENT BASIC CERTIFICATION COURSE

This is a course that all officers are required to attend within 1 year from their hire date. All applicants must submit the 4 page L.E.S. form along with 2 blue FBI Applicant fingerprint cards.

Domestic Violence/Sexual Assault Training: The SD Network against Family Violence and Sexual Assault offers training to law enforcement on responding to domestic violence, sexual assault, and/or stalking calls. This training is FREE! The training is provided by a law enforcement officer, a prosecutor and an advocate. The training team will come to your jurisdiction at NO CHARGE. The only things you have to provide are a place to hold the training and the people. The team does everything else.

The training can be customized to meet your time schedule and topic needs. Please contact Jackie Goosen at 605-731-0041 for more information or to set up training.

911 2-WEEK BASIC

This is an 80 hour course that all dispatchers are required to attend within 1 year of their hire date. All applicants must submit the Basic 911 4 page form along with 2 blue FBI Applicant fingerprint cards. To obtain these forms, call (605) 773-3584.

There will be optional 3 day EMD courses in addition to the 911 2-Week Basic Courses. The following is the schedule and which vendor will provide the training at no cost to the 911 basic students.

March 12 – 14, 2018	EMD Priority Dispatch

March 9 – 11, 2020	EMD Priority Dispatch
June 15 – 17, 2020	EMD PowerPhone
October 13 – 15, 2020	EMD Priority Dispatch

Emergency Medical Dispatch (EMD) Certification Course: EMD will provide communication techniques that will enable the dispatcher to have a direct impact on the successful outcome of a medical emergency and to provide an overview of medically-proven methods of gathering the most pertinent information in the least amount of time, while determining the severity and urgency of the call for medical assistance. And here is the link to the course description on our web site: <https://www.powerphone.com/dispatchu/emergency-medical-dispatch/>

Priority Dispatch EMD: Advanced EMD training through the IAED will help you master emergency medical dispatching on the front lines. You will learn how to handle difficult callers, identify the correct Chief Complaint, assign needed resources, effectively communicate between responders and callers, and provide life-saving support. This is hands-on training with real-life examples, exciting audiovisual tools, and instructors who have spent years in EMS as dispatchers and responders.

TERMINAL OPERATOR COURSES

Every second Tuesday of the month Law Enforcement Training will host a NCIC Limited Access Course in Pierre. This course is 3.5 hours in duration. Course will begin at 10:00 am and finish up after lunch at 2:00 pm. Interested persons must send in the one page Terminal Operator application and two sets of finger print cards. If you are an LEO, finger print cards should be on file in LET, therefore no need to resend. Any questions please call 773-3584.

*3.5 HR Limited access course is required for any person operating or having access to the SDLETS/NLETS/NCIC (teletype) system through a regular or mobile data terminal. This course is designed for those who do limited queries such as driver's licenses or criminal histories.

*24 HR Full access course is required for any persons who have full access to the SDLETS/NLETS/NCIC (teletype) system and do more in-depth queries and entries.

By Federal Law any person who operates a terminal that has access to the NCIC system must be certified. Please forward a Terminal Operator Application, which can be accessed from our web-site, along with 2 sets of finger print cards to Law Enforcement Training.

PPCT DEFENSIVE TACTICS INSTRUCTOR RECERTIFICATION COURSE

Date: March 23 - 25, 2018 (note weekend training)
Location: Pierre

This is a 24-hour recertification course for those who already hold the DT Instructor Certification through PPCT.

The PPCT Defensive Tactics System is the first subject control system developed through tactical, legal and medical research. Tactically, the system addresses the most common types of resistance officers encounter, allowing the instructor to maximize training on job related techniques. Legally, the PPCT System teaches a simple use of force continuum that clarifies the appropriate force level for every level of resistance. Medical research was conducted on every PPCT technique to refine technique efficiency and to ensure the medical implications were proportional to the level of resistance.

The instructor for this course is Lyle Mee. He has worked for the North Dakota Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation for 16 years all at the James River Correctional Center. He has held the position of Case Manager for 7 years. He is currently a member of the Special Operations Team (SORT). He has been a member of the team for 14 years and the Assistant team leader for 12. He has been a PPCT instructor for 12 years starting in 2004 and became an instructor trainer 2008. He is currently an instructor trainer in Defensive Tactics, Ground Avoidance Ground Escape, Spontaneous Knife Defense, Violent Patient Management, Close Quarter Countermeasures, Inmate Control and Pattern Resignation (firearms).

To attend this course you must be able to verify your certification status is current with PPCT. Each participant must send a copy of their current certification along with their application to attend the course to LET. Rooms and meals will be provided at the academy; however, students will be responsible for their weekend meals off-site and will be reimbursed the cost of the weekend meals at state rate. Lyle will do back to back courses of the Recertification and Certification while he is in SD. To make the best use of time, this Recert Course will begin on a Friday and run through the weekend, finishing on Sunday. If you have any questions regarding the course or registration, please contact LET at 605-773-3584.

PPCT DEFENSIVE TACTICS INSTRUCTOR COURSE

Date: March 26 - 30, 2018
Location: Pierre (Meals & dorms provided at LET)

This is a 40-hour instructor level course for those who are not yet DT instructors through PPCT. The instructor for this course is Lyle Mee. If you have any questions regarding this course or registration, please contact LET at 605-773-3584.

ETHICS TRAIN-THE-TRAINER

Date: April 9 – 12, 2018
Location: Pierre ((Meals & dorms provided at LET)

This course will give law enforcement personnel an opportunity to explore and discuss the state of ethics and moral reasoning in the American criminal justice system, with a special emphasis on the day-to-day realities of policing. Strategies will be offered to help improve ethical decision making on personal and professional levels. In addition, participants will have an opportunity to develop strategies for creating and maintaining a positive ethical climate within their own work environment. Successful completion of this program will authorize graduates to present the eight hour Law Enforcement Ethics and the sixteen-hour Ethics for Field Training Officers courses within their own agencies or local/regional academies.

Your agency's participation in this program will have a win-win result. The participants who attend will receive valued training of national caliber that will benefit your agency with personnel who can then "carry the message" to your fine men and women.

- Models for Ethical Decision-making
- Identifying Dilemmas and "Stakeholders"
- The Six Pillars of Character and The Principles of Ethical Policing
- The Condition of Society: What Does it Mean to Policing?
- Higher Standards/Different Standards
- Strategies for Creating a Healthy Ethical Environment
- Foundational Ethics

The trainers for this course are from the Center for Law Enforcement Ethics (Institute for Law Enforcement Administration)

SECURITY ASSESSMENT CERTIFICATION FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT

Dates: April 16 – 20, 2018
Location: Pierre
Maximum # Students: 30 (Meals & dorms provided at LET)

A security assessment or survey is a critical on-site examination to identify security-related risks, threats and vulnerabilities and the determination of needed improvements. Law enforcement personnel are frequently requested to conduct security assessments of residential properties, commercial/retail facilities, schools, houses of worship, government and institutional buildings, construction sites, public utilities, etc.

A security assessment should address environmental security, physical security, electronic security and procedural security issues. Law enforcement agencies should have specially trained crime prevention/community resource specialists capable of conducting security assessments or surveys for members of their community or jurisdiction.

Course Description

The Security Assessment for Law Enforcement Officers Seminar is a unique crime prevention training program developed by the American Crime Prevention Institute (ACPI) for law enforcement personnel. This unprecedented training seminar is designed to enable participants to effectively conduct a wide range of security surveys or assessments.

Seminar participants learn how to conduct high-quality security assessments for:

- Residential Properties
- Commercial/Retail Facilities
- Schools
- Industrial/Manufacturing
- Public Utilities
- Houses of Worship
- Construction Sites
- Government Buildings
- Parking Facilities
- Campus Buildings

Certified Law Enforcement Security Assessment Specialist

This seminar is a certification training program. Passage of a written examination covering seminar topic areas is required for successful completion of the course.
