June 18 – 20, 2018 ..... EMD PowerPhone
October 9 – 11, 2018..... EMD Priority Dispatch

Emergency Medical Dispatch (EMD) Certification Course: EMD will provide communication techniques that will enable the dispatcher to have a direct impact on the successful outcome of a medical emergency and to provide an overview of medically-proven methods of gathering the most pertinent information in the least amount of time, while determining the severity and urgency of the call for medical assistance. And here is the link to the course description on our web site:
<https://www.powerphone.com/dispatchu/emergency-medical-dispatch/>

Priority Dispatch EMD: Advanced EMD training through the IAED will help you master emergency medical dispatching on the front lines. You will learn how to handle difficult callers, identify the correct Chief Complaint, assign needed resources, effectively communicate between responders and callers, and provide life-saving support. This is hands-on training with real-life examples, exciting audiovisual tools, and instructors who have spent years in EMS as dispatchers and responders.

**TERMINAL OPERATOR COURSES

Every second Tuesday of the month Law Enforcement Training will host a NCIC Limited Access Course in Pierre. This course is 3.5 hours in duration. Course will begin at 10:00 am and finish up after lunch at 2:00 pm. Interested persons must send in the one page Terminal Operator application and two sets of finger print cards. If you are an LEO, finger print cards should be on file in LET, therefore no need to resend. Any questions please call 773-3584.

*3.5 HR Limited access course is required for any person operating or having access to the SDLETS/NLETS/NCIC (teletype) system through a regular or mobile data terminal. This course is designed for those who do limited queries such as driver's licenses or criminal histories.

*24 HR Full access course is required for any persons who have full access to the SDLETS/NLETS/NCIC (teletype) system and do more in-depth queries and entries.

By Federal Law any person who operates a terminal that has access to the NCIC system must be certified. Please forward a Terminal Operator Application, which can be accessed from our web-site, along with 2 sets of finger print cards to Law Enforcement Training.

INVESTIGATIVE STATEMENT ANALYSIS

Date: October 30 – November 1, 2017
Location: Pierre Academy
Class Size: 20

Note: Officers who have completed an advanced Interview and Interrogations will be given preference for this class; however, any officer can attend.

This 3-day training program is a comprehensive course on Investigative Statement Analysis utilizing our unique "S.A.I.D. process." It provides detectives and investigators with the ability to gather and assess information from people and to distinguish between truthfulness and deception within language, whether it's written such as statements, transcripts, notes and memos, or spoken during interviews, interrogations, and 911 calls, etc. Through the analysis of the words people use, investigators will gain insight into the individuals thought process and obtain a tremendous tactical and psychological advantage to help prioritize and conduct effective interviews, direct investigations, and reach accurate conclusions regarding the veracity of the information people provide. This training delivers proven techniques which help investigators identify deception as well as truthfulness within language. Students will learn the psychological differences between truthful and deceptive people and how the stress associated with deception often manifests subconsciously within our choice of words. Many times even the motive for the crime will be identified through careful analysis, which often goes undetected by investigators who have not received training in this powerful technique. This highly regarded course is hands-on and students learn through individual and group exercises and practice on real-world cases. Meals & lodging at Law Enforcement Training.

VEHICULAR HOMICIDE INVESTIGATION FOR THE PATROL OFFICER

Date: November 2 - 3, 2017
Location: Pierre

This is a two-day class. The purpose of this class is to work with patrol officers across the state to improve the investigation process of Vehicular Homicide/Battery cases. These cases can be very complex and have numerous moving parts. It is important to be able to correctly identify the information put before you at scene so that appropriate action can be taken. This can include the different types of evidence (whether it be from the vehicle, roadway, environment, or driver), elements of the crime for successful prosecution, legal process to ensure what is collected does not get thrown out, the history of the subject over the last 24 hours, and many others. The importance of involving the right people at the right time will be stressed. Over the two days of training the individuals knowledge of these cases will be refreshed/renewed to be able to present the facts from the event. This includes events leading up to the crash, evidence collection all the way through a successful court prosecution. Limited to 24 people.

RADAR/LIDAR INSTRUCTOR

Date: November 20 – 21, 2017

Location: Pierre

This course trains experienced law enforcement officers to properly instruct new officers and to recertify officers in the use of radar and/or LIDAR. During this 2-day course, students will receive instruction on: History of RADAR/LIDAR; Operational Theories; Operational Considerations; Courtroom Preparation; and Practical Application. Attendees must have completed a RADAR and/or LIDAR operator course prior to attending. Lodging and meals will be provided at the academy.

*CELL BLOCK SURVIVAL

Date: December 11, 2017

Location: Mitchell

This one-day course designed to address the realities of working in a jail or correctional environment and enhance officer safety. Rooted in our foundational belief that quality training should offer realistic, practical and immediately applicable tools for those who work in one of the most stressful and dangerous professions on the planet, the goal of this class is simple:

1. Provide elite training, from the newest officer, to the seasoned professional and administrators.
2. Arm officers with techniques to help understand their environment, be constantly aware of their surroundings and solve problems they are faced with on a daily basis.
3. Enhance the skills of the officer to control the irrational, work with the mentally ill or those in a medical crisis, and understand the subtle, non-verbal cues that identify signs of pre-attack.
4. Prepare officers to win force encounters, in the cell and in court. Review physiological responses and how it affects our ability to make effective decisions under stress. We will examine critical incidents and lessons learned from them.

This course is constantly evolving, incorporating current events and relevant supporting material that meet the needs of today's Jail Deputies and Corrections Officers and facility Administrators. During this dynamic and entertaining seminar, participants will discuss and learn about the following:

- Situational Awareness
- Understanding and responding to Critical Incidents
- The value of Safety and Action Plans
- Conducting an Administrative Review
- Balancing work and personal lives
- Detecting Deceptive behaviors and the Importance of Building Rapport
- Pre-Attack Indicators
- Escalation, De-Escalation and the Winning Mindset
- Working with the Mentally Ill and those in Crisis
- Conducting Effective Searches
- Immediate vs. Calculated Use of Force
- Going to court (and how not to)
- And much more!

ADVANCED SUPERVISION

Date: December 14 – 15, 2017
Location: Pierre
Class size: 80+

Instructor: Thomas & Means Law Firm. This program deals with a variety of supervisory and managerial responsibilities that are non-negotiable. Supervisory styles can and will vary from supervisor to supervisor but adherence to certain key principles cannot. Leaders absolutely must put employees on clear notice of organizational standards. Those standards must be consistently enforced. Sanctions must be consistent and proportionate. This cannot vary from supervisor to supervisor; overarching consistency must be maintained from workgroup to workgroup. This requires a systemic approach to handling what historically was left to individual supervisory and managerial discretions. This seminar demonstrates the need for organizational solutions to organizational problems and emphasize roles and responsibilities of the various members of the leadership team—first line supervisors to senior administrators—with focus on accountability at all levels. Dorms available on a space available (first come, first serve) basis.

Topics Included:

- Supervisory Roles and Responsibilities
- Strengthening Organizational Culture
- Professional Standards and Employee Morale
- Methods and Styles of Influence

ADVANCED ACCIDENT INVESTIGATION

Date: January 1 – 5, 2018
Location: Pierre
Meals & lodging at Law Enforcement Training

This 40 hour course deals heavily in the dynamics and physics of vehicle crashes. Extensive work is done with crash formulae. Also included is a brief overview of motorcycle crashes, motor carrier crashes, and head light and tail light examination. This course is open to officers who have completed the 13 week basic accident course and who possess a working knowledge of mathematics. This course is a pre-requisite for taking the Crash reconstruction course.

INSTRUCTOR DEVELOPMENT

Date: January 22 – 26, 2018
Location: Pierre
Time: 8:00AM to 5:00PM (Requires outside hours to complete assignments)
Meals & lodging at Law Enforcement Training

This is an interactive course designed to prepare individuals to determine training needs, and then develop, implement, and evaluate meaningful training for their department. Attendees learn the key to effective training is to focus on their trainees and prepare to meet those needs.

Pre-class articles and a journal will be provided to students before the class. Students will produce two final projects. The first project will be a non-Law Enforcement topic lesson plan and presentation. The second project will be a Law Enforcement topic lesson plan prepared to the same standards as the first project, developed by student groups and furnished to all students on completion.

The concept for the second project is to make law enforcement lesson plans available to more officers and increase agencies ability to develop their own lesson plans.

Topics include: adult learning, strategies for using Multiple Intelligences, Emotional Intelligences, and Blooms Taxonomy to increase participant learning, training needs assessment, instructional methods, Problem Based Learning, instructional objectives, course outlines, lesson plan development, testing & evaluation, presentation techniques, student presentations, and development of a training lesson relevant to each individual's future teaching assignments. This course is presented by Gerri Ann Eide.

Gerri Ann Eide: I attained my BS in Agriculture Education & Agricultural Journalism and MEd in Career & Technical Education from South Dakota State University. I am a leadership and educational trainer with 20 years of experience. Through the years, I've attended exceptional, challenging educational training sessions that forever changed my knowledge and perceptions. But like many of you, I have also attended boring, poorly executed trainings I forgot as I left the room. I gained nothing and was utterly frustrated about the waste of time. I'm dedicated as a trainer to helping others learn and implement effective educational and facilitation techniques. Through GANE Leadership Consulting, I tailor the training to meet the specific needs of attendees, growing their effectiveness as leaders, facilitators and trainers. Training in Emotional Intelligences, Multiple Intelligences, adult learner needs, and Problem Based Learning continually come into play as I guide individuals to teach and facilitate exceptionally.

ETHICS TRAIN-THE-TRAINER

Date: April 9 – 12, 2018
Location: Law Enforcement Training Center in Pierre

This course will give law enforcement personnel an opportunity to explore and discuss the state of ethics and moral reasoning in the American criminal justice system, with a special emphasis on the day-to-day realities of policing. Strategies will be offered to help improve ethical decision making on personal and professional levels. In addition, participants will have an opportunity to develop strategies for creating and maintaining a positive ethical climate within their own work environment. Successful completion of this program will authorize graduates to present the eight hour Law Enforcement Ethics and the sixteen-hour Ethics for Field Training Officers courses within their own agencies or local/regional academies.

Your agency's participation in this program will have a win-win result. The participants who attend will receive valued training of national caliber that will benefit your agency with personnel who can then "carry the message" to your fine men and women.

- Models for Ethical Decision-making
- Identifying Dilemmas and "Stakeholders"
- The Six Pillars of Character and The Principles of Ethical Policing
- The Condition of Society: What Does it Mean to Policing?
- Higher Standards/Different Standards
- Strategies for Creating a Healthy Ethical Environment
- Foundational Ethics

The trainers for this course are from the Center for Law Enforcement Ethics (Institute for Law Enforcement Administration)
