Artist depictions of what the victim may have looked like.

On Feb 19, 2000 the skeletal remains of an unidentified male were located approximately 4 miles north of St. Onge, SD. The remains were found in a secluded area, concealed beneath two 7 ft, wooden planks. The victim is estimated to have died in the fall of 1999 and the manner of death was determined to be homicide.

The victim was believed to be between 20-25 yrs. old, about 5'7" tall, and of mixed racial heritage. He had dark hair and a pronounced overbite. He may also have possibly walked with a limp or altered gait due to back problems.

He was wearing an XL, Bill Blass brand lightweight jacket with green and purple horizontal stripes; an XL, Britannia brand purple and blue striped short sleeved shirt; Wrangler brand blue jeans; a belt with a buckle; tan colored "Stubbies" swimming trunks; size 30, Hanes brand white underwear and size 9, Spaulding brand tennis shoes.
