Events 2013

FY 2013 was a busy and challenging year at Law Enforcement Training (LET). In FY 2013, a number of goals were achieved, which will continue to lay the groundwork to provide the best possible training for officers across the state.

This past year, LET was able to provide a wide variety of advanced training courses. More than 90 training courses were offered resulting in over 3,200 trained officers. This would not be possible without the support and working relationship with the Highway Safety Office and Homeland Security. LET continues to attempt to bring the most requested and relevant training needs based on feedback from agencies across the state. In an effort to provide the most relevant training, LET staff have had meetings with a Training Coordinator Group, which consists of training coordinators from various agencies throughout the state. These meetings allow for discussion on training topics as well as the ability to develop a professional working relationship, which is a focus of our mission. We look forward to continuing to build these relationships with all agencies across the state.

The SD DARE program has generated a great deal of interest this past year. In June 2013, a two-week DARE instructor course was held in Pierre. This course was attended by several South Dakota law enforcement officers as well as officers from eight other states. These officers were provided with knowledge and skills to take back to their local schools, which will result in a positive working relationship between law enforcement and our youth.

With a number of active shooter cases around the country, there was a large demand to provide active shooter training to specifically protect our children while they are at school. Based on this demand, an active shooter instructor course was held. Officers from around the state were provided the necessary tools to go back to their local agencies and train other staff so they are better prepared to protect their schools.

In previous years, there has always been a need to provide reliable vehicles to use during Emergency Vehicle Operators Course (EVOC). In FY 2013, LET had the opportunity to purchase eight low-mileage vehicles at a reasonable rate. This purchase will allow the EVOC fleet to be sustainable for several years.

LET continues to receive positive feedback, from both students and agency heads, regarding the new curriculum being taught and delivered at the Basic Academy. The students are challenged with countless real life scenarios and projects that provide them the confidence to be successful when they return to their agencies. The students are exposed to a variety of courses throughout several phases during the 13-week Basic Academy. Each phase builds upon itself, and the students are literally tested in week 13 on something they may have learned in week one, which helps them retain information and apply it appropriately upon graduation. The facilitation of this information has resulted in fewer dismissals and a more confident officer.

In FY 2013, LET was able to use the results of the completed Job Task Analysis for the 9-1-1 Basic Course to develop new curriculum and delivery methods. The new curriculum was utilized in the June 2013 course, which received positive reviews by the students who attended. Grant funds were utilized to purchase new state-of-the-art 9-1-1 simulators, which allowed the students to enter data into a CAD system making the scenarios more realistic and helping develop the skills that will be needed when they return to their agencies after graduation. We look to continue to make the new curriculum shine in the years to come.

House Bill 1087, which is commonly referred to as the School Sentinel Bill, was passed in the 2013 legislative session. The School Sentinel Bill allows for the arming of school employees, hired security personnel, or volunteers. LET worked closely with the Law Enforcement Standards and Training Commission to develop Administrative Rules and a training schedule for the School Sentinel program. We will be on target to hold our first School Sentinel course in FY 2014.

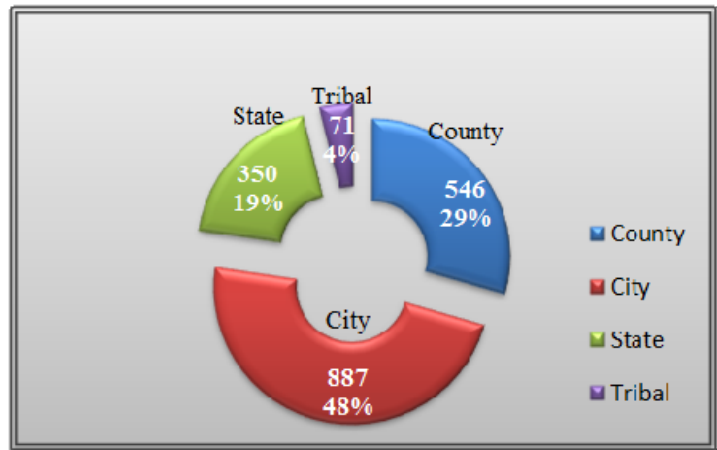

A summary of FY 2013 activities is contained in the following pages. As you will see, it has been a successful year at LET. We continue to look forward to building relationships with our customers by providing quality services and addressing any areas of concern. LET will continue to strive to meet its goal to provide the highest quality training possible to all those we serve so they may perform their jobs safely and successfully.

JUST A VOICE

You don't know who I am; to you I am just a voice.
It was me who took your frantic call, when you had no other choice.

I spend many hours waiting, to help when you're in need.
"Send help to me, please get them here is often what you plead.

To do my job is complex, but only a few tools are a must Put your faith in me, I am the one that you can trust.

My ears are a necessity; my mouth a mighty sword
I must use my ears to listen, and then choreograph every word.

I am the protector of this land; I take pride in what I do
I am here to listen and do what is best for you.

The day you place a call to me, might be the worst day you ever had
At least today you know, I too was feeling sad.

I take your problems home with me, I know that's not so good,
But as you felt your tragedy it was by your side I stood.

I walked with you to the door, to let them into help,
I guided you to safety, when all alone you felt.

It is not often we hear praise or even simple thanks,
But the cookies and cards are plenty through police and fire ranks.

The day you placed your call, and I picked up the phone
I hope I made you feel safe and showed you you're not alone.

Remember who I am, I am not just a voice
I am the 911 Dispatcher you called when you had no other choice.

Law Enforcement Oath of Honor

On my honor, I will never betray my badge, my integrity, my character or the public trust.

I will always have the courage to hold myself and others accountable for our actions.

I will always uphold the Constitution, my community, and the agency I serve.

An oath is a solemn pledge someone voluntarily makes when they sincerely intend to do what they say. The key words in the "Law Enforcement Oath of Honor" are defined thusly:

HONOR means giving one's word as a bond and guarantee.

BETRAY is defined as breaking faith and proving false.

The BADGE is a visible symbol of the power of your office.

INTEGRITY is firm adherence to principles, both in our private and public life.

CHARACTER means the qualities and standards of behavior that distinguish and individual.

The PUBLIC TRUST is a duty imposed in faith to those we are sworn to serve.

COURAGE is having the "heart", the mental, and the moral strength to venture, persevere, withstand, and overcome danger, difficulty, and fear.

ACCOUNTABILITY means that we are answerable and responsible for our actions.

COMMUNITY is the municipality, neighborhoods, and citizens we serve.
