

2016 Presidential Initiative Summit

“To Protect and Serve with 21st Century Policing”

Hosted by NAAG President &

South Dakota Attorney General Marty Jackley

May 2-3, 2016

The Lodge at Deadwood &

Monday afternoon session at Crazy Horse Memorial

100 Pine Crest Lane

Deadwood, SD 57732

Agenda for Press

as of 4-15-2016

8:30 am – 11:15 am	Pine Crest Ballroom B/C
	Morning Plenary Session
8:30 am – 9:30 am	The Use of Deadly Force: Legal Issues of Officer-Involved Shootings The issues surrounding officer-involved shootings are many. Law enforcement and public officials at all levels face heightened scrutiny by the media and public to these incidents. This panel will explore the use of deadly force in officer-involved shooting situations, discussing constitutional issues, the development of shooting scene protocols and conducting homicide investigations, ethical considerations when making an initial public response, and the handling of potential civil disobedience in response to such situations. Moderator Marty Jackley, NAAG President and South Dakota Attorney General Panelists Martha Coakley, Of Counsel, Foley Hoag LLC and former Massachusetts Attorney General Peter Kilmartin, Rhode Island Attorney General Michael Turpen, Attorney, Riggs, Abney, Neal, Turpen, Orbison &amp; Lewis and former Oklahoma Attorney General
9:30 am – 9:45 am	BREAK
9:45 am – 11:15 am	Gambling On Line: The Legal Issues of Internet Gambling Reports indicate that as many as 50 million Americans play some form of online fantasy sports, even though Internet gambling is essentially illegal under the 2006 Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act. However, current regulations do not preclude individual states from passing online gambling legislation, and currently many states have Internet gambling proposals working their way through their legislatures. This panel will discuss the many issues and consequences surrounding legalizing online wagering.

	Moderator  J.B. Van Hollen, Principal, Van Hollen Consulting and former Wisconsin Attorney General Panelists  Andy Abboud, Senior Vice President of Government Relations, Las Vegas Sands Corporation  Whit Askew, Vice President of Government Affairs, American Gaming Association  Jon Bruning, Managing Partner, Bruning Law Group and former Nebraska Attorney General  Larry Eliason, Executive Secretary, South Dakota Commission on Gaming  Rob McKenna, Public Policy Group Co-Chair, Orrick, Herrington &amp; Sutcliffe LLP and former Washington Attorney General  Mike Rodman, Executive Director, Deadwood Gaming Association
11:45 am – 12:45 pm	Bus ride to Crazy Horse Memorial
12:45 pm – 2:15 pm	Lunch with Keynote Speaker at Crazy Horse Memorial
1:30 pm – 2:00 pm	Keynote Speaker  The Honorable Mike Rounds, U.S. Senator, South Dakota
2:00 pm	Group Photo in front of Crazy Horse Memorial  Attorneys General with Sen. Rounds
2:15 pm – 5:00 pm	The Theater at Crazy Horse Memorial  Afternoon Plenary Session
2:15 pm – 3:00pm	A Deadly Mixture: Mental Health and Substance Abuse  Mental and substance use disorders share underlying causes. Both create issues for law enforcement and corrections personnel. Should substance abuse be treated as a health or as a criminal enforcement issue? Should mental illness be treated as a health or criminal enforcement issue? How should our judicial system respond to these interrelated issues? Moderator  Tim Fox, Montana Attorney General Panelists  Martha Coakley, Of Counsel, Foley Hoag LLC and former Massachusetts Attorney General  Sheriff Mike Leidholt, Past President, National Sheriffs' Association  Brad Schimel, Wisconsin Attorney General
3:00 pm – 4:00 pm	The Radio Call Nobody Wants to Hear: “Active Shooter at the School”  Are there best practices available to deter violent attacks at schools? How do we engage parents and students in talking about this issue and encourage their commitment to help stop attacks before they happen? How can attorneys general contribute to the dialogue and assist law enforcement, school districts, and universities in developing effective screening and deterrence measures? Moderator  Peter Michael, Wyoming Attorney General

	Panelists Cynthia Coffman, Colorado Attorney General Peter Kilmartin, Rhode Island Attorney General Dustin McDaniel, Partner, McDaniel, Richardson and Calhoun PLLC and former Arkansas Attorney General
4:00 pm – 5:00 pm	The Latest Law Enforcement Tool: Police Body-Worn Cameras – The Costs and Benefits Recent events regarding use of force by law enforcement officers have resulted in media and community demands for the use of body-worn cameras, leading to discussions regarding the benefits and costs of the implementation of body-worn camera programs by law enforcement agencies. This session will examine policies regarding use, privacy concerns, data storage and retention, and steps that should be taken to ensure program sustainability. Moderator Lawrence Wasden, Idaho Attorney General Panelists Colonel Craig Price, South Dakota Highway Patrol Pat West, Supervisory Special Agent, South Dakota Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI) Bill Sorrell, Vermont Attorney General

Tuesday, May 3
9:00 am – 1:00 pm	Pine Crest Ballroom B/C Plenary Session
9:00 am – 10:00 am	Protecting Electronic Data: The Costs and Risks Millions of Americans are affected by data security issues relating to sensitive personal information such as medical records accessed by unauthorized parties, identity theft, web-based information brokers selling sensitive personal data, and private information retrieved on mobile devices and social networking sites. Attorneys general have a deep interest in protecting consumer privacy and safeguarding the security protecting that information from being breached. At the same time, organizations are looking to accelerate their monitoring, collection and analysis of data for both business intelligence and to improve risk management and data security practices. This panel will examine the tension between big data and privacy. Moderator Jim Hood, Mississippi Attorney General Panelists Will Castleberry, Director of State and Local Public Policy, Facebook Sam Olens, Georgia Attorney General Doug Peterson, Nebraska Attorney General Jennifer Salter, PhD, Senior Intelligence Publications Manager, Cyber Intelligence Center, Citigroup

	Derek Schmidt , Kansas Attorney General
10:00 am – 10:15 am	BREAK
10:15 am – 11:15 am	Campus Sexual Assaults: Lessons Learned  Statistics report that one in four college women will be the victim of sexual assault during her academic career. Recently, the federal government has established rules and regulations concerning how colleges must respond to reports of assault. This panel will explore how schools might handle reports of such assaults while protecting the rights of the accused. Moderator  Bill Sorrell, Vermont Attorney General Panelists  Doug Gansler, Partner, BuckleySandler LLP and former Maryland Attorney General  Jill Habig, Assistant Attorney General, Special Counsel to the Attorney General, California Attorney General's Office  Michael Moore, Past President, National District Attorneys Association
11:15 am – 12:15 pm	State of the Art Technology for Solving and Preventing Crime  Technology and data have long played an important part in solving and preventing crime. They also have their place in generating community trust and developing evidence-based investigative practices. This panel will examine the latest approaches, processes and possible solutions with state-of-the art technology. Moderator  Rob McKenna, Public Policy Group Co-Chair, Orrick, Herrington &amp; Sutcliffe LLP and former Washington Attorney General Panelists  Justin Erlich, Special Assistant Attorney General, California Attorney General's Office  Patrick Lynch, Partner, Patrick Lynch Group LLC and former Rhode Island Attorney General  Karl Racine, District of Columbia Attorney General  Sean Reyes, Utah Attorney General
12:15 pm	Meeting Concludes